TOM HANKS RECEIVES THE ICONIC FIAT 126p!

When in 2016 Tom Hanks, (1) (który) had won the Oscar twice, posted a photo of a Fiat 126p on Twitter, he didn't expect to get a real one a year later. But it happened thanks to his Polish fans in Bielsko-Biała, (2) (gdzie to auto) had been produced between 1973 and 2000. It was Monika Jaskólska (3) (która zobaczyła) Tom Hanks's post and decided to celebrate the actor's 61st birthday by giving him the car. She raised money through crowdfunding (4) (żeby kupić) the Fiat.

Tom Hanks was really surprised when he heard about this special gift and said that he couldn't wait to drive the fabulous Polish Fiat. A few months later, the car was delivered to Los Angeles. Fantastycznie was the Polish word (5) (które) was used by the actor when he saw his present. He had learnt it in Wrocław while shooting Bridge of Spies, (6) (który) was directed by Steven Spielberg.

Some of the crowdfunded money was spent on the Fiat for Tom, but the rest was given to the local paediatric hospital. The actor donated some money (7) (żeby wesprzeć) the hospital too.
