THE DOGGY TOUR OF LONDON

Have you ever been on a sightseeing tour with your dog?

Last night I (1) (organise) some folders on my smartphone when I found this photo of the K9 bus.

I (2) (take) it in January 2017 when the special tour bus for dogs and their owners was driving around London for four days. My friend (3) (tell) me about it.

He already had the ticket and I (4) (decide) to join him with my Daisy.

The 90-minute tour of historical doggy places was free, you just had to book it online. It (5) (begin) at about 11 a.m. at Lambeth Bridge. When we arrived there, some people and their dogs (6) (queue) to get on the bus (you can see this scene in the photo). There was a tour guide on board. While we were going from place to place, he (7) (talk) about London landmarks connected with dogs. There are a lot of them, for example, Buckingham Palace, home to the famous Royal corgis of Queen Elizabeth, or Hyde Park – the most famous dog walking place. There were stops in other parks too. I think Daisy enjoyed the ride, I certainly did.

Are there any pet-friendly tourist attractions in your town?
