

Work - grammar p. 32

1

SPRAWDŹ SIĘ | PYTANIE POŚREDNIE | Połącz części zdań.

1. I wonder

A. if he's going to retire next year?

2. I'd like to know whether

B. you've ever worked as a waiter.

3. Could you tell me when

C. how this machine works.

4. Do you know

D. I will get promoted?

2

Popatrz na podane zdania i odpowiedz na pytania.

1. I wonder how this machine works.
2. I'd like to know whether you've ever worked as a waiter.
3. Could you tell me when I will get promoted?
4. Do you know if he's going to retire next year?

1. Czy podkreślone fragmenty mają szyk zdania pytającego czy oznajmującego?

pytającego

oznajmującego

2. Kiedy na końcu pytań pośrednich stawiamy znak zapytania?

3

Przekształć pytania poniżej w pytania pośrednie.

1. Does he wear a uniform at work?

I'm not sure .

2. Are you going to apply for the job?

Can you tell us ?

3. When did you talk to him?

I'd like to know .

4. Could you lend me your tablet?

I wonder if .

4

Przeczytaj pytania i wskaż właściwe uzupełnienie zdania.

Mowa niezależna: Mary asked, 'Are you tired?'

Mowa zależna: Mary asked me if I was tired.

Pytanie przytaczane w mowie zależnej przyjmuje szyk zdania  | .

5

Przepisz zdania, używając mowy zależnej. Odpowiedz na pytanie.

1. My parents once said, 'Vlogging is not a real job.'

... my parents sometimes, saying it's not very good.

2. Someone once told me, 'Sharing too much information on social media can hurt your career.'

3. A friend once told me, 'Very few YouTubers make a lot of money.'

4. My teacher once said, 'In the future people will only work in virtual reality.'

Do you agree with the opinions? Why?/Why not?

6

Uzupełnij luki w wywiadzie, stosując mowę zależną.

Grammar Bank

Here's The News!

Presenter: Hello and welcome to our programme. Today we're on the phone with Tom, a job consultant. Hello, Tom.

Tom: Hi everybody, I'm up to my ears in work*. Is it going to be a short interview?

Presenter: I'm sorry, I didn't hear you. Our assistant was collecting dirty cups. Could you repeat that?

Tom: I said (1)  up to my ears in work. And I asked if (2)  going to be a short interview.

Presenter: Sure, Tom. Here's my first question: do you think that there will be any new jobs in ten years' time?

Tom: Now I didn't hear you. What was your question?

Presenter: I asked if (3)  be any new jobs in ten years' time.

Tom: But of course! Everything changes: some jobs appear, others disappear. A vlogger or a drone pilot are examples of jobs that didn't exist 15 years ago. Our society is changing, people live longer. The elderly will need, for example, well-being consultants who will advise them.

Presenter: Let me repeat the last sentence: you said older people (4)  the help of well-being consultants?

Tom: That's right.

Presenter: Thank you Tom. It's very interesting, but we have to finish.

Tom: I'm sorry, did you say we (5)  finish?

Presenter: That's right. Thank you for your time! Bye!

Posłuchaj wywiadu, aby sprawdzić odpowiedzi.

7

Odpowiedz na pytania na temat tekstu.

1. What does Tom do for a living?
2. Why did he want the interview to be short?
3. What jobs does Tom mention that appeared in recent times?

B I U **≡ **≡ **≡ **≡

Pokaż modelowe odpowiedzi