B. The first match I ever watched was at Wembley. Manchester United played against Barcelona, so there were many cheerful, noisy Spanish fans at the stadium.

C. Then the Spanish goalkeeper remembered that he had seen that man before. He had played the same trick in Madrid to stop the match. The British police arrested the joker and the match went on. United scored three more goals and won the game.

C. At first, we were scoring points when suddenly our key defender Kamil twisted his ankle.

D. All of us were very disappointed. I hope we'll do better next time.

How about you? How's your baseball practice going?

Take care,

Michał
