Hi, I'm Tim, and I want to tell you about my pet. I've always wanted to have a cat, because I think cats are very clever and they aren't much trouble to keep. But one day last summer, my friend Bill phoned me and told me about a lost dog he and his family found somewhere in the forest. She was alone and very hungry. Bill's parents took her home with them but they don't want to keep her because they already have two cats and a parrot. Bill asked me to take the dog. I wasn't sure at first, but she needed a home and my mum didn't protest. Roxy was difficult at first. She didn't want to go for a walk and she only slept under my bed. But now she knows I'm her best friend and she follows me everywhere. I love her, too.
