3.1

It took J. K. Rowling two years to write Harry Potter and the Deathly Hollows. Devoted fans spent ages discussing what the book was going to be about. When finally the book was available at the bookshops, faithful readers formed kilometre-long queues with one thought on their minds – to open the book and read it as fast as possible till the last chapter.

3.2

Each new part of the Harry Potter series has sold millions of copies, but it was the seventh part of Harry's adventures which got the greatest amount of public attention, mainly because, as Ms Rowling declared, it was 'absolutely and unchangeably final'. Some readers were disappointed and couldn't believe they wouldn't be able to read any further stories about the brilliant teenage wizard.

3.3

The publication of the final part of Harry's adventures was carefully arranged. It was agreed that the book and its contents would be kept safe and secret until the day of its official release. But just one day before that, someone placed the book on the Internet. To make matters worse, some newspapers published reviews with detailed descriptions of how the story ended!

- A The author's public readings
- B The adventures are over
- C Waiting impatiently
- D The plan is ruined

Zadanie 4 (4 pkt)

Przeczytaj poniższy tekst, z którego usunięto cztery zdania. Uzupełnij luki (4.1–4.4) w tekście odpowiednimi zdaniem (A–E), tak aby był on spójny i logiczny. Jedno zdanie zostało podane dodatkowo i nie pasuje do żadnej luki.

Glynis Cook from Ipswich couldn't believe her eyes when she went through her mail on Tuesday morning. In amongst the bills and leaflets, was a postcard sent on June 21st, 1927. 4.1 ____ But it turned out that it wasn't. Its authenticity was proven by an expert examination. The card had an original one-penny stamp on it, and was in perfect condition. It hadn't faded and it was still possible to read the message. 4.2 ____

The sender mentioned his trip to Ascot, and seeing people in 'cashmere clothes'. He signed the card 'love from Bob' and addressed it to Dolly Rix. 4.3 ____ Now, Glynis Cook wants to find any relatives of Ms Rix to show them the postcard. As for the Royal Mail, a spokesman doesn't believe that the postcard was in their system all the time. 4.4 ____ Most probably, he's right. But what happened to the postcard before that, remains a mystery.

- A It contained holiday greetings from Exeter sent by a man to a woman.
- B He's convinced that it was put back in a post box very recently.
- C At first, she thought it was a joke and the postcard was fake.
- D He asked the woman to buy a stamp and send the postcard for him.
- E It's been confirmed that such a woman lived in Ipswich back in 1927.

Zadanie 5 (3 pkt)

Przeczytaj informacje o trzech osobach (5.1–5.3) oraz czterech obozach wakacyjnych (A–D). Do każdej osoby dopasuj jeden obóz, który by jej najbardziej odpowiadał. Wpisz odpowiednie litery obok numerów osób. Jeden obóz został podany dodatkowo i nie pasuje do żadnej osoby.

5.1

Ellie: Last year, I spent two weeks in a leaky tent full of insects from a nearby forest. I also went hiking and played team sports which I hate! This year, I want to spend two weeks in some peaceful country area and relax.

5.2

Kate: My last holidays were a nightmare! I was hiking and visiting national parks. I don't mind spending two weeks in a tent or hut, but I prefer team or water sports and all sorts of artistic activities to climbing.

5.3

Leslie: During my last holidays, I learnt how to use a map and compass. It'd be nice to have more skills like that. I'd also like to practise some water sports before our family holidays in the Lake District.

A.

The Callhill Camp is located in a peaceful country area with access to Lake Erton. During a 3-week stay, campers practise sailing and kayaking. They are also taught basic survival skills, such as finding their way around without using a map or compass. Besides this, they visit national parks and the Museum of Nature.

B.

We organise our 2-week camp in Seldon – a quiet village situated in a picturesque valley. Every day begins with a yoga or aerobics session after which campers take part in a wide range of artistic activities.

C.

Have you ever dreamt of spending a whole week in the mountains and sleeping in a wooden hut? If yes, visit the Travola Camp. We equip our campers with hiking sticks, maps and compasses, and teach them how to use these items properly.

D.

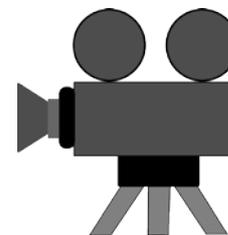

If you still don't know how you are going to spend the last two weeks of June, stay at Barly's Camp. It's located in the middle of the Fir Forest and offers its campers lightweight tents and sports equipment. The participants can take part in football or volleyball matches and try drawing or painting activities.
