1

Most of the time there isn't much trouble at our school, apart from a bit of graffiti, and maybe a few broken windows. The discipline is pretty good. Maybe this is because of our head teacher. He hates it when students behave badly! The other day, for example, he called a special assembly for the whole school and warned us that he would punish bullying severely. He means it, too! We're all quite scared of him actually.

2

Have you heard? Someone's thrown black paint all over our school's main entrance. It's a terrible mess. I don't know who on earth would be so stupid. I mean, what's the point? It happened last night. The head called the police, they think they'll be able to catch the person who did it.

3

Guess what? Somebody's got into the IT room and stolen a couple of laptops. He kicked a door down I think. It happened on Saturday night. I don't know who discovered it. Our head teacher Mrs Williams had a phone call from the police.

4

We've got a thief in the school. He or she takes things from coats hanging in the changing rooms. My friend lost a five pound note the other day! Anyway, our head teacher told us to look after our things. He's contacted the police.

Przykładowa odpowiedź:

Dear Students, Teachers, and Parents,

On behalf of the organisers, we would like to invite everyone to a charity karaoke contest. The event will take place in our School Assembly Hall, on February 20, at 5:00 p.m.

During the event, we will raise money and collect necessary items for schoolchildren in Syria. Despite the war which has destroyed the country, Syrian children want to continue their education. However, they don't have everything they need to study. That's why we would like to ask you to join our event and bring pencils, notebooks, bags and T-shirts. A teddy bear will also be a nice gift.

See you on February 20!

We also count on your generosity.
