Mr Chapman is our Maths teacher this year. In the past I wasn't good at Maths and I didn't like this subject. But this year it's different. My Maths classes are OK because Mr Chapman is a very good teacher. I understand almost everything. He's also a nice person. He is not very strict and he often tells us jokes. He's the best.

This year we have to wear blue trousers and a white T-shirt at school. The uniform is really boring and everyone in my school hates it. So after classes, I always wear colourful clothes like red jeans and a green shirt. There are a lot of cool shops in my town, so I always ask for new clothes for birthdays and Christmas.

I go to the science club on Mondays and Thursdays. It's a lot of fun because we do exciting experiments. I'm busy on Tuesdays and Fridays, too, because I study Japanese then. But the best day of the week is Wednesday. On Wednesday evenings, I play tennis with my dad. He's a good player, so I don't always win.
