Dear Sally,
How are you? I'm sorry I didn't write to you last week. I was very busy because we moved to a new house.

Do you remember my old house next to the post office? It was small and dark. My new house is better. Would you like to visit me and see it? You can catch the bus at the hospital. The house is easy to find because it's next to the park.

My room is big but there aren't many things yet. I'm sleeping in my old bed and my computer's there. On Saturday I'm going shopping with my mum because I'd like to buy a desk and a chair.

I have to go now. My mum's working in the garden so dad's making lunch today. I have to help him with the washing-up.

Love,
Jane
